ROANOKE, VA. CARLD-HERS

BYFHING 44,512

25X1A

Dad Says Powers Disputes U2 Book

The U.S. Affair," a new book lished about the first of the year, on the 20th contury's best-known and the pilot told him last weeks spy episode, is "largely fiction," end that the new David Wise-in the eyes of U.2 pilot Francis Thomas Ross book is "about a Gary Powers, the famed pilot's third right," the father told The father said today.

Chiven David Ross and his con is from Market today. father said today.

Oliver Powers says his son is from Norton today.

Writing his own account of the flight and that it should be publicated adding:

Roanoke World-News by telephone from Norton today.

Meanwhile, the pilot refuses to sutograph the book, the father said adding:

said adding:
"Why shouldn't he. It's largely fiction.

His sen told him "his book is going to be very much dif-ferent from this thing," said the Norton shoemaker.

A condensed version of "The U-2 Affair" is currently being serialized in The Rosnoke Times; Powers and his U2 were downed deep inside the Soviet Union May 1, 1960. His capture brought the breakup of an Eisenhower Khrush chev summit conference in Paris. Powers' Moscow showcase trial was followed by 21 months in a Soviet prison and a cloak-and-dagger release on a Berlin bridge Feb. 10.

Questions had been raised about Powers' performance at the time he was downed, allegedly by Soviet rockets, and later at his trial. Both a Central Intelligence, Agency (CIA) inquiry board and the Prettyman board gave the 33-year-old pipt a clean bill of health.

health.
Young Powers is reported residing in the West hington, D.C., area.